Freeze your moments

Photography is the only thing that capture your best moments in your life. But without knowing how to capture your moments perfectly that would be wastefulness. To learn how to master those setting and composition of photos you need to check out my videos and my channel. These go through these Important topics.

Compostion

This would be main part of photography this is simply how your subject is alligned in your shot.

Exposure Triangle

Exposure triangle without setting these settings your photos will be either fully exposed or under exposed. If you master at this then you can shoot any where any time.

Why our Channel

Our channel will be free of cost and will go through all main topics to learn photography. Easy to understand also.
